Mr. and Mrs. Grant Spurrier, of Chicago, were in Logan Monday, between trains and visited some of his many friends here. He and wife had been in the country for a few days visiting relatives. Mr. Spurrier is with the Standard Oil Co. in Chicago and is making good.

Mr. Fred Koppe and daughter Miss Catherine left Monday for a visit in Upper Sandusky, to attend a family reunion, the occasion being that Mr. Koppe's mother has reached the good old age of 75 years, and the children and relatives are gathering in to help celebrate.

They cure backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and make every trace of pain, weakness, and urinary trouble disappear. Bort & Co.

Butchered to Make a Roman Holiday.

The happiest auspices attended the marriage yesterday of more American millions to another European title. In the little Scottish town where the final step in the purchase was effected were hung such inscriptions as "God Bless the Prince and Beautiful Bride," "Long Life and Happiness to the Prince and Princess."

Taking some similar events of the past a criterion, these suggestions ring terribly hollow. Long life, perhaps, but happiness? Would that a simple inscription hung to view could assure the kind of happiness that every American girl, rich or poor, ought to enjoy. But to ask God's blessing on a union of American dollars to a continental coronet smacks too much of blasphemy.

It would be much pleasanter if one could honestly rejoice over the verdant prospects of bride and groom. But the list of those young women of America who have sought happiness in wedlock with a foreign title and found it a barren, joyless, terrifying experience is so lengthy that one is bowed with a sense of helplessness and regret whenever it is repeated.

Too many of the innocents already have been "butchered to make a Roman holiday" for degenerate rouses of Europe who have fallen heir to an empty title. Too often these unions are inspired only by a commercial spirit. Nothing in connection with them suggests the true basis for matrimony. It is simply a matter of barter and exchange, in which the American dollars almost invariably get the worst of the deal. Whatever of proper sentiment rests with the purchaser is dissipated as soon as the title has dissipated in riotous living most of the millions that accompany the bride to the altar. Experience is never a more severe teacher than in these international marriages.

Star of Bethlehem.

The star of Bethlehem, the star which guided the wise men of the East to the spot where the new born Saviour lay in Bethlehem, may now be seen any morning just at day break in the eastern sky. It is very bright and can easily be distinguished from other stars. Astronomers say this star is visible now for the first time in 500 years, and that it will not be coming this way for the next 500 years, so if you ever want to see the star you would best take advantage of the present opportunity. The declaration of the astronomers may be accepted for what it is worth. Seems to us publications were made heretofore of the appearance of the star of Bethlehem.

Rev. Willis Leaves Logan.

We are indeed sorry that our good friend Rev. J. W. Willis, pastor of the U. B. church at Logan has been transferred to the charge at Circleville, Ohio. We regret very much to see him and his estimable wife leave us. He has certainly made many friends here who wish him well in his new field of labor. It was the wisdom of the conference to send us a preacher by the name of O. L. Barnegrove, and we welcome him to our town and will accord him the same happy reception that Logan accords all strangers who come well recommended. The assignments for other stations in this community are as follows: Antioch, O. M. Martin; Bremen, S. R. Shaw; Gibsonville, James Konkle; Logan Circuit, E. N. Canter; Murray City, J. S. Turban; Union Furnace, J. H. Sollars.

Dan Erb Killed.

[Murray City News.]
On last Monday morning Mr. Dan Erb of this city was run over by the passenger train near Buchtel station. It is said that the old gentleman had just received a message from a son in West Virginia which worried him and his state of mind, caused him to ignore the warning whistle of the engineer. The remains were taken to Undertaker Wallace and from thence to Monday to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dupler. The funeral services were conducted Wednesday at Monday, Rev. W. H. Tope, of this city, officiating. Interment took place at Carbonhill, where the deceased was laid to rest near his wife, who died some years ago.

Mr. Erb, was an old soldier and a man well known in this section of the Valley. He leaves several children to mourn him.

Plenty of Quail.

The state game warden has made a prophecy regarding the coming hunting season that will doubtless gladden the hearts of nimrods. The state official declares that there will be more quail in Ohio this year than there has been in the last twenty years. The weather has been such that the mother quails were very successful in hatching and brooding their young, and it is claimed that the young birds are exceedingly numerous.

Unless some disease wipes out a number of the birds, the state game warden declares that by the time the season opens in November, there will be abundance of sport for the wing shooter.

It is said the rabbits will not be so numerous this year. There is no particular reason given for the scarcity.

Why He Did It.

Governor Harmon's statement as to why he stopped the pay of members of the state board of public works until they can show that they are entitled to the juicy plums they have been picking lays the whole matter before the people of Ohio clearly and comprehensively in a few words. Following is the governor's statement in full:

"I think I ought to state just what I have done about payments claimed for the members of the board of public works, and why I did it.

"Until 1904 each of them received a salary of $500 per year and actual expenses not to exceed $600. They were then made 'supervisors,' too, at $1500 per year, on the express condition that they should devote all their time to the canals and public works of the state. Appropriation and other laws have also dealt with the matter from time to time. They are now drawing the sum of this three amounts, or $2900, and about $600 for expenses beside, or $3500, each.

"I do not believe the general assembly ever intended to raise the regular salaries of these officers at a time when the receipts from the canals had become a mere trickle. To pay them each $1500 a year besides their salaries for extra work, which they were not required to do and never did; nor to pay them $600 per year each to cover their expenses and then pay their actual expenses too. Yet this is exactly what is now claimed to be the effect of the confused state of legislation on the subject, and they have been drawing pay accordingly.

"When I discovered this I thought it my duty to advise the treasurer, who takes the same view as myself, not to pay the vouchers recently presented."

MRS. ROSE ATKINSON.
321 E. Spring Street, Columbus, O. Nov. 13, 1908.

In February, 1907, our family physician pronounced my case tuberculosis and prescribed creosote. He then sent me to the country and said that I would have to remain there or I would not live eighteen months.

I remained on a farm near Zanabazar six months, taking creosote all the time. This seemed to give me temporary relief, but soon after I returned I began to decline, and my condition became worse than ever.

June 24th I began taking Nature's Creation, and was soon cured, just the same as many other cases that I know of personally, but I believe my recovery was more rapid than most cases, as night sweats, high temperature and all symptoms left me in about three weeks.

My family physician recently examined me again and was greatly surprised to find me cured. Sincerely,
Rose Atkinson
June 25, 1909—I continue to enjoy good health and am more grateful every day to Nature's Creation. MRS. R. A.
